

Society for Prevention Research Pre-Conference Workshop
 May 26, 2009
 "The State of the Field: Prevention Science Training"

Time	Issue	Moderator	Speakers	Objectives
1:00-2:00 20 min talks + 20 min for Q&A	Critical Issues in Prevention Science Training	Linda Caldwell	Mark Eddy- Survey of Prevention Science Training	To analyze gaps in prevention science training To understand how KTF competencies can be used to fill gaps in prevention science training
			Zili Sloboda- Knowledge Task Force Competencies
2:00 - 3:15 15 min talks + 15 min for Q&A	Advances in Prevention Science Training at Prevention Research Centers	Mark Eddy	Nick Ialongo - Multisite Postdoctoral Training Program at JHU	To identify new training content and methods at PRCs To understand how new training at PRCs fills gaps in prevention science training
			Irwin Sandler - ASU predoctoral and postdoctoral training programs
			Doug Coatsworth - PSU Methodology Training Program
3:15 - 3:30	Break
3:30 -4:30 15 min talks + 15 min for Q&A	Pedagogy of Prevention Courses and Curricula Utilizing Risk and Resilience, CBPR, and Service Learning Frameworks	Michael Mason	Michael Nakkula - Risk and Resilience	To identify how Resilience, CBPR, and SL contribute to gaps in prevention science training
			CBPR-based Preventive Medicine Training Program - Blumenthal, Morehouse Medical School
			Service Learning based DrPH- Ulmer, Drexel University SPH
4:30 - 4:45	Concluding Comments		John Lochman	Summary Resources for participants on SPR website