

SPR E-BULLETIN, July 25, 2003

1. MARK YOUR CALENDARS FOR THE 2004 CONFERENCE

The SPR 12th Annual Meeting "Crossing Borders: Linking Prevention Science, Policy and Practice" will be held May 26 – 28, 2004 in Quebec City, Canada. The Call for Papers will be distributed via e-mail mid-September, 2003 and the abstract submission deadline will be mid-November, 2003.

2. CALL FOR SYLLABI

The SPR Training Committee would like to collect syllabi of classes related to prevention science that people are willing to share with others in the field. We would like to post these syllabi on the SPR website as a resource that others can use as they develop their courses. We would like this to be a growing resource, so that as people revise old syllabi and develop new courses we post them on the SPR website for others to share. Please send in any syllabi that you consider relevant to the emerging field of Prevention Science - e.g., Prevention Science Seminar, Development of Prevention Programs, Methodology, Program Evaluation, Grant Writing, Ethics, Innovative Practicum, etc. The syllabi will be made available on the website in a workable format so that they can be copied, in total or in part. Please e-mail syllabi for the Training Committee Syllabi Resource Project to Mailto:SPR.ECPN.Training@Comcast.net
